By telephone calls from our Atlanta Office 10:45 a.m. and 11:40 a.m., today (11-2-64), we learned of the following information through a highly sensitive source. Martin Luther King, Jr., just learned this morning of a campaign which has been initiated to encourage people to vote for King for president as a write-in candidate 11-3-64. The campaign is taking several forms, including telegrams being sent to Negroes throughout the country; efforts to gain radio time to urge people to vote for King; and the circulation of handbills in larger cities encouraging a vote for King. The handbills reveal distribution by "Committee for Negroes in the Government," Louisville, Kentucky. (No record this organization Bufiles.)

According to our source, King interpreted the actions described above as an obvious attempt to cancel out the Negro vote and to confuse Negroes in their voting. King believes that the campaign was initiated by Goldwater forces because any votes for King by Negroes would obviously diminish the number of such votes for President Johnson. (

King held an immediate press conference in Atlanta, Georgia, this morning in which he told the press of the foregoing and denied having any connection with the campaign. He urged people not to pay any attention to the efforts to have people vote for him. (

ACTION:

The foregoing information was immediately telephonically furnished to Mr. DeLoach's Office so that he might alert the White House. This is for your immediate attention. Letters to the White House and to the Acting Attorney General are being expeditiously prepared. (

SECURITY MATTER - C

DATE: October 31, 1964

By radiogram dated 10-30-64 the Atlanta Office advised it had received information on that date that Martin Luther King's secretary informed King of a message from Clarence Jones to the effect that Jones and their "mutual friend" want to come to Atlanta to meet with King on the earliest weekend possible. King said that he was desirous of having this meeting with Jones and their "mutual friend."

As you know, Jones is the intermediary used by King to maintain contact with Stanley Levison who is usually described by the term "mutual friend."

Although King is scheduled to be in Baltimore Saturday, 10-31-64, we have no information as to whether he plans to return to Atlanta from Baltimore and, since we are desirous of establishing, wherever possible, evidence of the continuing relationship between King and Levison, Special Agent in Charge Joseph K. Ponder in Atlanta was contacted this date and told to alert their sources for the possibility that King might return to Atlanta this weekend and to be alert to a possible meeting between King and Levison in Atlanta this weekend. In addition, Security Supervisor [redacted] of the New York Office was contacted and instructed to have discreet spot checks made in an effort to determine if either Jones or Levison leave New York this weekend and, if so, to attempt to determine their mode of travel so that Atlanta can be advised.

Dear Mr. Moyers:

A confidential source of this Bureau who has furnished reliable information in the past supplied the following information on November 2, 1964:

On the morning of November 2, 1964, Martin Luther King, Jr., at Atlanta, Georgia, learned of a campaign which had been initiated to encourage people to vote for him as a write-in candidate for President of the United States during the election on November 3, 1964. The campaign was to take several forms, including telegrams to Negroes throughout the country; efforts to gain radio time to urge people to vote for King; and the circulation of handbills in large cities encouraging a vote for King.

According to this Bureau's source, King interpreted the actions described above as an obvious attempt to cancel out the Negro vote and to confuse Negroes in their voting.
King expressed the belief that the campaign was initiated by Goldwater forces on the basis that any votes for King by Negroes would obviously lessen the number of such votes for President Lyndon B. Johnson. King held a press conference in Atlanta on the morning of November 2, 1964, at which he reportedly told the press of the foregoing and denied having any connection with the campaign on his behalf. At this conference he urged people not to pay any attention to the efforts being expended to have people vote for him.

This information is also being furnished to officials of the Department of Justice.

Dear Mr. Hoover

If it is not out of order for me to ask you, I would like to know if, Martin Luther King is really a card-carrying communist.

The reason I am asking is because I would just like to know for myself, I hear so much about him being one. It seems to me that he did deserve the Nobel prize for the way he handle the civil rights demonstration, if he is right in doing that. I dont want to be wrong or misled so I am just asking for my own information.

I am not enterested in any sort of disturbances, but I am concerned. I dont want to use it for any other purpose but to know the truth. for I feel there should not be so much prejudice against any people. I want use your answer if you see fit to give it, other than for my own information, please for I am for peace, order, and justice. Am thanking you in advance.

Enclosed you will find a copy of a circular attributed to The Augusta Courier, July 8, 1963, purporting to show Dr. Martin Luther King in a Communist training meeting at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee, in 1957.

I have heard of this story before but have been unable to verify its accuracy or falsity. Could you help me?

Is it true that this is Martin Luther King and was this a Communist training meeting? If so, what was he doing there? And who are the other men pictured, Earl Browder, Abner N. Berry, Aubrey Williams, and Hylton Horton? Are they correctly identified on this circular? And what was or is the Highlander Folk School?

Also what is The Augusta Courier and what is the group Alert Americans Association?

On October 26, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he learned that Clarence Jones was in contact with an unidentified woman on that date. The woman, according to the source, discussed with Jones the latest developments concerning the article by Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)) which is scheduled to appear in the November 3, 1964 issue of "The Saturday Evening Post." She said that King's attorney, "Dr. Michaelson" (Wachtel and Michaelson, Attorneys) wrote a letter to "The Saturday Evening Post" in which he referenced a telegram he had sent to the magazine publisher on October 20, 1964, in behalf of King. According to the source, the text of the telegram in fact as follows:

"Confirming telephonic advices by 'us' (Wachtel and Michaelson) this date as attorneys for Martin Luther King, Jr., you have no authority to publish and distribute any materials or articles under the authorship of King. Should you disregard these advices you will be held accountable and responsible for all consequences."

Re: Communist Influence in

According to the source, the unidentified woman told Jones that the article by King was going to "run without changes." ()

In reverting to the letter of Dr. Michaelson, the Woman said it referenced a telephonic agreement between Dr. Michaelson and a Mr. Hunt of "The Saturday Evening Post," which provided that the printing of the article would be held in abeyance, and a new text of the middle section of King's article would be accepted. This agreement was breached and the original text was being printed, according to Michaelson. ()

With reference to the consternation over King's article, on October 20, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (Deputy Director of the March on Washington) said the article was, in fact, written by King's attorney (Clarence Jones). He said the article in its original text contained a statement by King that irresponsible leaders took over the civil rights movement following the March on Washington. According to Rustin, King gave permission to print without even reading the article. This statement, if allowed to stand, would cause serious trouble in the civil rights movement, Rustin said. ()

According to the woman, Michaelson concluded his letter by stating that in view of the public interest in the subject matter (the article) it was shocking that a responsible periodical could so flagrantly violate its clear agreement, and make light of genuine concern of King. He then demanded that "The Saturday Evening Post" () cease and desist from publishing the November 3, 1964 article or any other under King's name unless they strictly follow the text delivered to Mr. Hunt. He said the magazine would be held accountable for all consequences. L

On October 22, 1964, confidential source number 2 advised that on that date, Rustin and Wachtel were in contact about King's article. In that regard, Wachtel told Rustin to inform King that most of the article was correct and that they (Rustin and Wachtel) had corrected the inaccuracies they had found. X

Jones, in reply to the contents of Michaelson's letter, said, "You can't force a magazine to run the text." He said he did not know who was advising Harry Wachtel, adding that he (Wachtel) did not have a leg to stand on. The unidentified woman replied that the whole thing (the article) had been mismanaged, and that Wachtel was trying to cover himself in the event King was questioned about the article, when Wachtel could say that "we" tried to enjoin the magazine from publishing it. The woman, in conclusion, said she was trying to "kill the article." L

Jones told her that he was trying to get something in writing in case there should be a "backl. e" from the article.

A guest named ARRINGTON placed a call to telephone number FR 4-1238, Miami, Florida, from Room 712 at 11:24 P. M. on August 21, 1964.

ARRINGTON placed a call to an individual named

A guest named ARRINGTON placed a call to an individual named HAMPTON at telephone number EL 5-8340,

A check of miscellaneous charges reflects a charge of $1.02 was made by a guest named HARRINGTON in Room 712

[REDACTED] also checked the bills sent to the American Motor Inn by the telephone company for the pertinent period and could not locate a billing for a telephone call made from Room 712 to Atlanta, Georgia, during the pertinent period.

[REDACTED] advised since she has not received the folio for Room 712 for the pertinent period, she believes the guest paid his bill by using a credit card, either b7(c) American Express or Diners Club or similar card. She advised in that event she would not receive the folio until the bill has been paid by the credit card company.

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] Holiday Inn (Downtown),
Baltimore, Maryland, could check the names ARRINGTON, ARRINGTON and HARRINGTON in the guest registration cards, which are filed alphabetically and the folio number should be recorded on the guest registration card, and from this information, he should be able to find the folio.

[REDACTED] explained the folios are an 8 x 5 card in triplicate.
The motel retains the heavy paper card, one is used for billing the credit card company and the third is sent to her after the bill is paid.

Re: American Committee on Africa
Internal Security - Africa

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 20, 1964, that Clarence Jones and an unidentified woman were in contact on that date. According to the source, Jones was told by the woman that George Houser (Director of the American Committee on Africa) had requested her to contact him about three Africans who are condemned to death. She said they were former members of the African National Congress. She requested Jones contact Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC) and ask him to send the following telegram to the "Honorable C.P. Swart, President of the Republic of South Africa, Pretoria:

"Urgently request Executive Clemency for Messrs. Mini, Kaba, and Khayingo in the name of humanity and according to the United Nations resolution, June 9, 1964.

Signed "Martin Luther King, Jr.
1964 Nobel Peace Prize Winner"

According to the source, the woman also requested that Jones relay to King that he should release the telegram to the press two days subsequent to the date he sends it. She said the adverse publicity (of the telegram) might cause the South African Government to reduce the sentence.

In ending her contact with Jones, the woman said she was also going to ask Roy Wilkins (Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) (NAACP), James Farmer (National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality, CORE), and A. Philip Randolph (President of the Negro American Labor Council, NALC) to send telegrams.

SUBJECT: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
SM - C

ReBulet to Chicago dated 10/19/64.

Referenced communication directs the immediate consideration of the Chicago Division to the possibility of effecting appropriate monitoring of subject's bank account maintained with the Service Federal Savings and Loan, Chicago, Illinois.

After full consideration the Chicago Division recommends that no action be taken to initiate the monitoring of this account. In submitting this recommendation the following points were carefully analyzed and are set forth herewith for the information of the Bureau.

1) The Service Federal Savings and Loan is geographically located in a completely Negro neighborhood, thus making difficult regular contacts with that banking institution on a discreet level.

2) The banking institution is entirely staffed with Negro officers and employees. It is patronized solely by Negroes. No established sources are available.

3) The entire staff of the Service Federal Savings and Loan is composed of eight or less persons, thus minimizing the possibility of securing a highly responsible source.

4) Because of this small number of employces, duties within the institution are not fully handled by one person and thus full control would be questionable.

5) In April, 1963, this banking institution was concerned in the matter "Shortage in the Accounts of Service Federal Savings and Loan Association, Chicago, Illinois; FRA" (Bufile 29-33470) (Chicago File 29-2076). A significant development of this inquiry is shown in the fact that the Assistant United States Attorney, Chicago, Illinois, in declining prosecution because of lack of apparent criminal intent, characterized the operation of this institution as poorly managed.

In view of the above the Chicago Division suggests the possibility that maintaining absolute security is highly improbable. The overall operation shows an obvious lack of necessary conditions for maintaining such a monitoring operation on a discreet basis.

In weighing all considerations it is believed the risk of embarrassment to the Bureau is great and should preclude further consideration of such an operation.

As you know, from time to time we have received information concerning threats against the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. As King more and more becomes a controversial figure, coupled with the controversial nature of the civil rights movement in which he is engaged, we can expect the continued receipt of information pertaining to such type threats. Our usual procedure has been to notify the Atlanta, Georgia, Police Department (PD) due to King's residence in that city, as well as to notify an appropriate local law enforcement agency covering the area where the violence is threatened if such locale is known. We have not been notifying King himself.

The most recent such threat made was covered by memorandum from R. W. Smith to you 10/11/64 (original attached) which noted that upon your instructions it was determined that the Atlanta PD had been advised of the threat but that the Atlanta Office should not have the FBI notify King or his family directly. The Atlanta Office was instructed that it was up to the Atlanta PD to see that King is notified.

We intend to follow the practice outlined above of advising the Atlanta PD of information pertaining to threats against King. We will not advise King. We will also advise any other local agency if we know of locale of threat.

A Great King

AWARD of the Nobel Peace Prize to the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is an exhilarating testimonial to the enduring, and increasingly successful, advocacy of non-violence that characterizes this forceful, but law-respecting, leader of the American Negroes' fight for human and civil rights.

The Prize, perhaps the most distinguished of all recognitions to which men and women may aspire, is given to the one who has "done most for mankind and humanity in the preceding year." In this instance, emphasis is on Dr. King's insistence on non-violence. He has held to this policy even in circumstances of vicious brutality inflicted on peaceful demonstrators.

Just as the enactment of the civil rights law was a great advance in civilization, so is the award a momentous recognition of the virtue and high-mindedness of the peaceful pursuits by which Dr. King, Roy Wilkins, Executive Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and other leaders of their race have furthered a fight that, our Constitution being what it is, it should never have been necessary to make.

100-106670-491

The American Negro has been extremely patient in the century since the Civil War—little has been done for him. At long last, he has had to do for himself much of what has been done up to now. He knows now that the vast majority of American whites stands beside him and that the success of his cause is inevitable. The diehards, though vicious and spectacular, are relatively few. Time will dispose of their stubbornness.

The award should have an impact on the small group of rabble-rousing Negro leaders who have stirred inflammable members of their race to violence. If these instigators are not persuaded by the award, perhaps their followers will be. For the award is not only a world-spoken commendation of the non-violence method but, in that very approval, a world-spoken rebuke to violent means.

Dr. King, 35-year-old slave-descendant, Montgomery, Ala., minister, who is president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, has held fast to principle in the face of prosecution and persecution that must have embittered and destroyed the peaceful intent of lesser men. He has been jailed, stabbed and vilified. Crosses have reddened on his lawn. A bomb has been flung at his door.

He is the 12th American to receive the Nobel Peace Prize. Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, now Under Secretary of the United Nations, was the first American Negro to win the award. The Nobel Peace Prize committee, in making its present decision, had several nominees for consideration and came up with Dr. King. The universal comment should be "Who else?"

On October 15, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin was in contact with A.J. Muste on that date. Rustin said his purpose in contacting Muste was to discuss plans concerning Martin Luther King's trip to Europe to accept the Nobel Peace Prize. In that regard, Rustin said he had been asked by King to accompany him (to Oslo, Norway) for the purpose of handling arrangements for him. Rustin, the source said, remarked that King did not trust any of the people "around him" to be knowledgeable enough to know whom he should or should not contact when he goes over to accept the award. X

Rustin, in commenting on King's request, said he thought he should go, but was faced with a problem as to where he could get the money which would be needed for transportation. X as well as other expenses incidental to the trip. In regard to his expenses, Rustin said he thought "we" should appeal to some of "our friends" (Rustin's and Muste's friends) to raise the money. X

With regard to King's use of the money that he will receive with the award, Rustin said Coretta King (wife of Martin Luther King) desired that Martin place in trust $5,000 for each of their children's education, but that King opposed the suggestion. As a consequence of their indecisiveness as to what to do with the money, Rustin said Martin King had invited him down to Atlanta on Monday, October 19, 1964, to discuss what the money should be used for. X

Rustin told Muste that he was of the opinion that King should make a decision and an announcement to the effect that of the $54,000 award, he was going to set aside $30,000 for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) for the express purpose of teaching the doctrine of non-violence. He said this could be accomplished through the establishment of institutes in this country for the purpose of acquainting young people with the tactics and philosophy of non-violence. As to the remaining $24,000, Rustin said he was of the opinion that it should be placed in trust for the children of the Kings. This, Rustin said, would benefit the children because Martin was not a wealthy man. He said his only reservation about the trust for the children was whether it would appear to the public that the Kings were trying to take care of their own (alluding to King's provision for his children). X

Muste said in reply to Rustin's feelings about the children of King, that he did not think that King should provide for them but instead, should give all the money to the SCLC. This, Muste said, would not subject King to criticism X for using a part of the money for himself. Rustin said he was of the opinion that if King does give away part of the money, then it should go exclusively to the SCLC for the purpose of teaching non-violence, and for nothing else. He said the SCLC could raise funds for its regular budget. Muste agreed, stating that King received the Prize for advocating non-violence, therefore, should apply the money for that purpose. X

Rustin, in commenting on his forthcoming meeting with King, said King wanted him to help him prepare a speech which he would make (apparently in regard to his decision about what to do with the money). In that regard, Rustin asked Muste to prepare a few thoughts that he could use when he meets King. X

According to the source, Rustin and Muste concluded their contact with a promise of Muste that he would help Rustin raise the money with which to make the trip with King. X

The April 14, 1957 issue of "The Worker," an east coast Communist publication, page 16, column 1, described A.J. Muste as the dean of the Socialist pacifists.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

RE: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-13, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned, "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL) and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. ()

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. ()

The "Daily Worker", issue of February 11, 1957, Page one, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Registers League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention, Communist Party of the United States (CPUSA), held February 9-12, 1957 in New York City. ()

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1953. ()

Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security - C

On October 17, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (Deputy Director of the March on Washington) was in contact with Walter Fauntroy (Director of the Washington, D.C. branch of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC) on that date. Fauntroy said he had recently conferred with Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the SCLC) during which time King said he felt that if "they" could get all the members of the moratorium (the leaders who signed the moratorium against further civil rights demonstrations) to make a tour around the country, it would be worthwhile. Fauntroy quoted King as having said that he would go, on the condition that Roy Wilkins (Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) (NAACP) goes, because in the eyes of President Lyndon B. Johnson, Wilkins is the chief spokesman for the Negro people.

Fauntroy told Rustin that if Wilkins did not back King's plan, King has said that he (King) would not stick his neck out (by making the tour). King, according to Fauntroy, said the purpose of the tour would be to encourage voting, and not for the purpose of endorsing President Johnson. King said he did not want it to appear as if President Johnson had him (King) in his pocket.

According to the source, King told Fauntroy that he thought the following should be participants in the proposed tour: Whitney Young (Executive Director of the National Urban League); A. Philip Randolph (President of the Negro American Labor Council); Roy Wilkins; James Farmer (National Director of the Congress of Racial Equality) (CORE); John Lewis (Chairman, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee) and himself. The following is the proposed itinerary as furnished by King: X

Friday, October 23, 1964, at Cleveland, Ohio
Monday or Tuesday, October 26, 1964, at Los Angeles, with the possibility of a mass rally on Monday evening in Los Angeles
Wednesday, October 28, 1964, day of rest
Thursday, October 29, 1964, at Chicago
Friday, October 30, 1964, at Detroit
Saturday, October 31, 1964, at Baltimore, Maryland X

Fauntroy told Rustin that "they" want Rustin to coordinate public relations for the tour. In reply, Rustin said he had a lot of work, but thought he could handle it. X

Rustin, in considering who of the civil rights leaders should be contacted first regarding the proposed tour, said he thought that Roy Wilkins should be the last to be informed of the plans. Fauntroy said that according to Andy Young (Executive Director of the SCLC), Whitney Young had committed himself to go on the tour. X

In concluding their contact, Rustin sought information as to where the tour was being arranged. He was told by Fauntroy that he was presently handling matters in Washington, D.C. X

With regard to the moratorium mentioned heretofore, it is noted that in "The New York Times", July 30, 1964, page 1, column 1, it was reported that major civil rights leaders conferred in New York City on July 29, 1964, and agreed to recommend to their members to observe a "broad curtailment, if not total moratorium" on all mass demonstrations until after the November 3, 1964 Presidential election.

The same confidential source advised on October 17, 1964, that Bayard Rustin was in contact on that date with an individual who identified himself to Rustin as William Wagner, of California. He told Rustin that he was very interested in doing civil rights work, and requested to meet Rustin. Rustin told him that he was too busy because he had a speech at 2:30 PM that afternoon at the headquarters of the Haryou-Act, 137th Street and 7th Avenue, New York, New York. Rustin said he was also busy doing some work for the Domestic Peace Corps.

It is noted that Haryou-Act is a combination of Harlem Youth Opportunities Unlimited and Associated Community Teams, whose purpose is to fight juvenile delinquency and poverty in Harlem.

On October 18, 1964, the same confidential source advised that Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel were in conference on that afternoon. Wachtel informed Rustin that he had made reservations for Rustin and himself to fly to Atlanta, Georgia, on October 19, 1964, to meet with Martin Luther King, Jr. According to source, Rustin agreed to meet Wachtel at Wachtel's office at 3:15 PM, October 19, 1964, where they would depart for the airport to catch the 4:15 PM flight to Atlanta. W

Wachtel told Rustin that Martin Luther King had said that a two or three hour meeting was all he could physically stand. ~~X~~

With regard to their return to New York, Rustin said he would have to return to the city on Monday, October 19, 1964, because of his heavy work load. 4

According to the same confidential source, who advised on October 15, 1964, Rustin said he would go to Atlanta to meet with King to discuss what King should do with the award of $54,000 which he will receive incidental to the Nobel Peace Prize.

"Der Morgen" a newspaper published in the so-called German Democratic Republic (DDR) (Soviet Zone of Occupation in Germany), reported on September 13, 1964, that the well-known Negro Minister and leader in the fight against racial discrimination, Dr. Martin Luther King, would preach that evening in the capital of the DDR (Berlin) in the Marienkirche.

The "Berliner Zeitung" published in East Berlin, in its issue of September 15, 1964, reported that the well-known Negro Minister, Dr. Martin Luther King, had preached in the DDR capital on Sunday. He was reported as having stated that the American Negro people would not be deterred in their fight for full equality. Dr. King, who spoke at a church service in the Marienkirche, referred to the struggle to free the approximately twenty million American Negroes from the darkness of racial discrimination as a great social revolution.

This newspaper also reported that Dr. King had spoken earlier before approximately 25,000 West Berliners.

"Neue Zeit", also published in East Berlin, reported on September 15, 1964, that Dr. Martin Luther King in addressing more than 3,000 persons at the Marienkirche and the Sophienkirche had expressed heartfelt thanks for the moral support rendered for Christians in the DDR in the Negro's fight for equality in the United States.

He is quoted as saying "please continue your moral support of our struggle for racial equality. Just as you pray for us so will I pray for a solution of the German problem."

According to the report Dr. King continued with illustrations of racial discrimination in the United States, slum conditions and police brutality.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I wonder if you could be good enough to give me your Department's report on the veracity of the enclosed brochure.

I have seen this material rather widely distributed and I would like to know if the Highlander Folk School was a Communist Training School and whether or not the person identified in the photograph is, indeed, Martin Luther King, Jr.

Since this material is being widely distributed in my district, you can appreciate my concern.

THE HIGHLANDER FOLK SCHOOL;

REQUEST FROM CONGRESSMAN ROMAN C. PUCINSKI
(DEMOCRAT - ILLINOIS)

BACKGROUND:

Congressman Pucinski forwarded a copy of a flyer made from a news clipping from the "Augusta Courier," Augusta, Georgia, on 7-8-63. The flyer identifies Martin Luther King in a photograph taken of certain individuals attending the Highlander Folk School during the Labor Day weekend of 1957. The Congressman would like to know if the Highlander Folk School was a communist training school and whether or not the person identified in the photograph is Martin Luther King, Jr.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

The photograph of Martin Luther King attending the Highlander Folk School has come to our attention several times in the past. A United Press - International Service release of 7-12-63 reported Governor Ross B. Barnett displayed a poster-size photograph to the Senate Committee on Education which he claimed showed King "at a communist training school." Governor Barnett said the picture was taken at the Highlander Folk School of Monteagle, Tennessee. The Bureau obtained another copy of the photograph from our Savannah Office in March, 1963, and it was revealed that the photograph was taken surreptitiously by an "undercover agent" of the Georgia Commission on Education at the Highlander Folk School in 1957.

The photograph also identified Abner W. Berry who has been a writer for "The Daily Worker" and has been a member of the Communist Party, although he reportedly left it in September, 1958. Audrey Williams, also identified in the photograph, has been associated with communist causes and has held such positions as chairman of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee and was president and member of the board of directors of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., a communist front. Myles Horton, identified on the flyer forwarded by Congressman Pucinski as director of the Highlander Folk School, has been very close to the Communist Party in the past, although informants doubt that he has ever been a member of the Communist Party.

M. A. Jones to DeLoach memo

The Highlander Folk School was formed in 1932 and was a leftist organization supported by private donations. It offered courses of instruction in labor organization, economics and labor education. Informants have advised that the school has had Communist Party members on its staff as instructors and has followed the practice of welcoming communists as students. Informants have advised the school was pro-communist, but there is no indication it was ever completely controlled by communists. The school was closed by the State of Tennessee in December, 1961, after its conviction for violating Tennessee segregation laws. A state charter for a Highlander Research and Education Center of Knoxville, Tennessee, was issued on 3-23-61 and Myles Horton was identified as its Director.

RECOMMENDATION:

That a representative of your, Mr. DeLoach, office personally contact Congressman Pacinski, with whom we have had prior cordial relations, and inform him confidentially of the background regarding the flyer he enclosed concerning the Highlander Folk School.

Pacinski personally. Letter

On June 29, 1963, a confidential source, who has been reliable in the past, furnished information on the activities of the "Black Panther Party" on that date. The source stated that things were only just in the early stages of development, and he said an attempt was being made to establish a "Black Panther Party" in other communities that belong to the "Black Panther Party" of the Nation."
The source stated that the "Black Panther Party" was becoming a people and movement in the "Black Panther Party" (the "Black Panther Party") and he stated that the "Black Panther Party" and "Black Panther Party" were getting

King stated that he was wondering about the effects on the civil rights movement if the youths were found dead, and Jones replied that he felt the immediate "objective" would be the elimination of federal protection in Mississippi. King and Jones discussed the possibility of having United States marshals sent also for protection for the voter registration program. Both Jones and King agreed that it was a dangerous situation and Jones mentioned that a great amount of fear would be instilled in the parents of other youths who are asked to go to Mississippi to work in the civil rights movement. 7

King mentioned that he had an office (of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference - SCLC) of which King is President, and that he had some staff (Wyatt Walker was the Executive Director of the SCLC), Adelle (Adelle Walker was the Executive Director of the SCLC), Billy (Billy Walker was the Executive Director of the SCLC), and some other people. King mentioned that he had some staff engaged in fund raising for the SCLC, and that he had an office of the SCLC in New York City, and himself (Jones) plan to hold a conference in New York to the New York Office. Jones mentioned that one of the things that he had to do was to get these operations under control. Jones mentioned that he had one major reservation in this regard and that because of the enormous amount of effort attached to Adelle's work, he did not want to let her go within a structure which would not give her the kind of freedom of mobility and independence. Jones mentioned that he had a lot of cards, codes, and sheets (in connection with the SCLC mailing program), and 6

Jones mentioned that there is also a question of the security of some of these lists. He mentioned that the lists which she has been refining are getting to be quite valuable and that whenever the New York Office would be, the mailing lists are like dollar bills lying around. He was agreed that something could be worked out to take care of the situation. (1)

It is to be noted that three civil rights workers, have been missing since Sunday, June 21, 1964, in Mississippi. The missing workers are Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. of Memphis, Tennessee, James Ray of New York and James E. Chaney of Mississippi. (1)

VISIT TO LOS ANGELES BY
OCTOBER 26, 1964

On October 26, 1964, the Los Angeles evening "Herald-Examiner", a large daily metropolitan evening newspaper, reported that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. would visit Los Angeles as a guest of local civil rights and church groups. A spokesman for sponsoring organizations stated that Dr. King will travel in a motorcade in a person-to-person tour to get out the vote. The article noted that Dr. King's visit was part of a non-partisan, cross-country tour of major urban centers, which Dr. King has undertaken to insure that the large number of citizens who are registered to vote in the coming election turn out at the polls on November 3. The article noted that Dr. King would make a major address at an all-citizens rally at South Park, Los Angeles, at 6:00 P.M. (October 27, 1964).

The Los Angeles "Times", a large daily metropolitan morning newspaper, on October 27, 1964, reported that Dr. King, on Monday, October 26, 1964, stated that civil rights demonstrations will resume after the November 3 election, "in situations that demand them". The article quoted Dr. King as saying, "We did call a moratorium on demonstrations for the campaigns, but naturally after the election, there will be a renewal of demonstrations in situations that demand them as long as the evils are there." The article disclosed Dr. King, recent winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, arrived at International Airport, Los Angeles (October 26, 1964), and spoke briefly at a press conference. The article stated he was scheduled for a number of personal appearances throughout the Los Angeles area on October 27, 1964, his final appearance being at Los Angeles City College at 3:00 P.M.

Honorable William B. Moyers

The White House

Dear Mr. Moyers:

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and his wife had discussed the absence of congratulations from "high Government officials" on the occasion of King's winning the Nobel Peace Prize. King felt that President Lyndon B. Johnson was attempting to avoid raising a political issue since King was such a "controversial figure," as far as the race issue was concerned, in the South. Mrs. King suggested that since the Negro people were now aware of their political power, they may not let the President "get away with this." King stated that he might "leak this" to the Negro press.

This information is also being furnished to officials in the Department of Justice.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

"The Star-Ledger", daily newspaper published at Newark, New Jersey, stated in the issue dated October 12, 1964, that Reverend Martin Luther King, national civil rights leader, addressed two groups in Newark, New Jersey, on October 11, 1964.

"The Star-Ledger" stated that in a speech to about five hundred members of the New Jersey Division of Local 1122, Hospital and Drug Workers Union, affiliated with the Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Union, AFL-CIO, King abandoned a long-time political neutralism and urged the members to vote against the Goldwater-Miller ticket on November Third.

According to the article, King was also the featured speaker before one thousand one hundred persons at a dedicatory dinner of Leaguers, Incorporated, a Newark organization that has financed educational scholarships for Newark children.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters
Internal Security-C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 6, 1964, that Clarence Jones was in contact with Adele Kanter (Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) office in New York City) on that date. Jones told of having gone to Savannah, Georgia (to attend the SCLC Convention which was held on September 29, 1964 through October 2, 1964), and while there he went to see Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the SCLC). He said he wished that he had not gone to see him because of his "indefiniteness and vagueness over several pressing organizational matters."

In elaborating on the problems concerning the SCLC, Jones said he had in mind the SCLC office in New York City, and in that regard, said the trouble exists over the fact that Ruth Bailey (employee of the SCLC in New York) refuses to abide by directives emanating from the SCLC office in Atlanta. Jones said that Wyatt Walker (former Executive Director of the SCLC and now affiliated with the New York office of the SCLC) and William Rowe (a public relations man in New York City, and active in fund raising for the SCLC) accuse each other for the trouble in the office.

Jones said that as a result of his meeting with King, King would get together with Walker, Rowe and Kanter when he comes to New York City this weekend. He said he told King that he must decide whether he (King) or Bailey is going to run the SCLC.

Adele Kanter said in reply to Jones' estimate of the situation, that she was of the opinion that Wyatt Walker was the cause of the trouble.

According to the source, Kanter related that she had gone to the SCLC Convention in Savannah, Georgia, and in that regard, said she met Randolph Blackwell, characterized by her as a new addition to the organization (to the SCLC). She said he would be a valuable addition to the organization.

Clarence Jones is General Counsel to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

SUBJECT: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
SECURITY MATTER - COMMUNIST

b7(c)

We have just learned that Martin Luther King, Jr., and some of his advisors, including Bayard Rustin and Clarence Jones, are working on an article which is to be submitted over King's name for publication in "The Saturday Evening Post." The article would deal with such matters as the poverty bill, elections, riots and the so-called "backlash" that is cropping up in political circles. The only publication known to be considered for this article to date is "The Saturday Evening Post." We do not as yet know specifically what line King will take in the article or what its specific stands will be. The matter of this article is scheduled for further discussion by King and his advisors on 9/22/64 in New York City. This information is classified "Secret" (S)

OBSERVATIONS:

Because of the communist influences on King it would be well to prevent any publication of his views. It is noted that earlier this year we had some advance information on the possibility of a King article being published by "The Saturday Evening Post." On that occasion Assistant Director DeLoach's office was able to take appropriate action to forestall the publication of the article. This was handled by Supervisor [redacted] who has an appropriate contact at "The Saturday Evening Post."

ACTION:

We have separately made appropriate dissemination of the information concerning King's intentions to have an article published in "The Saturday Evening Post" and have also written the Atlanta and New York Offices to remain on top of the situation so that the Bureau will be promptly furnished further developments in this matter.

RECOMMENDATION:

This memorandum be routed to Assistant Director DeLoach for appropriate action in accordance with the observations set out above.

Director Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a senior at Indiana University; next semester I will enter Law School. I have studied Communism for the past several years, reading dozens of publications on the subject, including your books: "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism."

Please answer the following question for me: Recently, Sept 27, 1964, in the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette, you are quoted as saying: "no evidence was found that the riots were organized on a national basis by any single person, group of persons, or organization." I would like to know how you can make a statement like this and at the same time use your wide knowledge of Communist tactics?

In December 1963, Martin Luther King visited President Johnson and told him that the racial demonstrations would start again. This can be found in "Time" (vents "Dec 24, 1963 and "Time" (Jan 2, 1964. Also, I have a signed and notarized: sworn the 28th day, of September, 1963, by one Earl Prussing Affidavit. This paper states that Martin Luther King belongs to a Communist Front Organization.

With these facts on hand King telling Johnson that demonstrations will occur, King's nomination (On the word of a coworker, from the Federal Bureau of Investigation) of "being a Communist." How then can one say that the recent racial demonstrations are not the organized efforts of any group?

Sir: I know you are a busy man, but please find time to answer this letter. I have long had great respect for the F.B.I. and all I ask is an explanation. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. King Leads For Nobel Prize

OSLO, Oct. 6 (UPI) — The Rev. Martin Luther King is the heavy favorite to win the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize, qualified observers said today.

A committee appointed by the Norwegian National Assembly chooses the winner. The selection, from a secret list of 20 to 30 names, is expected to be announced later this month.

The civil rights leader's candidacy has been sponsored by leading European politicians and seconded by newspapers of all political leanings in Norway. Other names on the list are believed to include former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, French President de Gaulle and former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, but none is believed to be among the front runners.

Re: Communist Influence

On October 2, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington August, 1963), was in contact on that date with Rachelle Horowitz (a confidante of Rustin's). Rustin informed Horowitz that he had just returned to New York, and said the conference was excellent (the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Convention (SCLC) held in Savannah Georgia, from September 29 until October 2, 1964). In that regard, Rustin said he wrote the economics section (of the program of the SCLC) and said it was excellent. It includes "everything" such as the shorter work week, shorter hours, social security until one gets a job, advanced coverage, general dental plan and others, Rustin remarked.

Rustin, in remarking about accommodations in Savannah, Georgia, said "they" were all received well by the public establishments, therefore, "they" had no problems whatsoever.

According to the source, Rustin said that he and Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the SCLC) will speak next Sunday (October 10, 1954) in Newark, New Jersey, in behalf of hospital workers who are conducting an organizing campaign in that city. In that regard, Rustin said there might be problems if King sits on the platform with the white Democratic candidate while the Negro Republican candidate is not present. Rustin said, however, that the problem could be resolved by not seating either candidate alongside King.

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 12812.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 14th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

YOUNG SOCIALIST LEAGUE (YSL)

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL.

A confidential informant on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. SITEMAN, "Chairman of SI (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after those few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

On April 9, 1956, another confidential informant advised as follows:

The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL.

SUBJECT: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

ASAC Eugene Stewart, Atlanta, called at noon today and said that through a confidential source, Atlanta had learned of a conversation between Martin Luther King and Walter Fauntroy, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) representative in Washington. This conversation disclosed a meeting which is to be held on Thursday afternoon, 10/8/64, with Cardinal Spellman at the Cardinal's Chancellery in New York. The meeting is scheduled to include several church leaders and the names of Rabbi Eisenrode (phonetic) and Dr. Eugene Carson Blake of the Presbyterian Church were mentioned. The purpose of this meeting is to obtain the concurrence of Cardinal Spellman to a statement which is being drawn up urging all church members to participate in the coming elections. King expressed some concern concerning what he referred to as Cardinal Spellman's conservatism and whether he would join in the statement.

This is for information.

The "Washington Post and Times Herald" contained a small article in today's edition stating that Martin Luther King, Jr., had announced through his office in Atlanta that he had been granted an audience with Pope Paul VI to take place on Friday, 9-18-64, at which time he hopes to discuss the racial situation in the United States with the Pope.

You will recall that several weeks ago, when we first learned of King's intention to travel abroad, we anticipated the possibility of King's asking for an audience with the Pope and arranged to have Assistant Director Malone of the New York Office contact [redacted] to see if appropriate action could not be taken to prevent such an audience. Malone did brief [redacted] in the matter and told us [redacted] had in fact called the Vatican immediately after being contacted by Malone.

Malone was contacted telephonically today to see if he could shed any further light on the report that King was to have an audience with the Pope. He contacted [redacted] was told that [redacted]

[redacted] had spoken personally several weeks ago by telephone to [redacted] the Vatican and had strongly recommended that no audience be granted King because of very serious but highly confidential information which had come to his attention but which he could not discuss in detail over the telephone.

Malone was asked to determine if there possibly could have been a slip-up so that the Pope did not actually receive [redacted] warning. He was advised by [redacted] that with the information being furnished to [redacted] the Vatican it would [redacted] to furnish the information directly to the Pope and that there was every assurance the Pope had received the information. With respect to your inquiry, regulations of the Department of Justice pertaining to the confidential nature of the information contained in FBI files preclude my commenting as you suggested. It is allegedly dedicated to the defeat of socialist and communist influences and to promote individuals and organizations which believe that a political party based on constitutional states rights is the answer to socialism. Neither Courtney or his publication has been investigated by the FBI. Courtney's paper indicates he is a rabble rouser and a hate monger and has urged the impeachment of Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Now What Was That About No Red Connections, Martin Luther King?

BY KENT COURTNEY, PUBLISHER

The Communist Party, U.S.A. has been put on the defensive in New Orleans as the result of the operation of the Louisiana Subversive Control Law.

Readers will recall that in the last issue of THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN we carried a feature story concerning the raid made on October 4 by Louisiana State Police on the headquarters of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc.

The SCEF has been officially labeled as a Communist-front organization by two Congressional committees, and James A. Dombrowski, the Executive Director of the SCEF, was identified as a Communist before the Senate Sub-committee on Internal Security on March 18, 1964.

The raid on SCEF headquarters obtained for the State of Louisiana evidence concerning the activities of this Communist-the Subcommittee.

Dombrowski, acting for the SCEF, has attempted to regain possession of his files and records in both State and Federal Courts. He has entered suits to obtain injunctions preventing the copying of the evidence by the State Police and the Senate Committee.

Fortunately, the State Police and the investigators of the Louisiana Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities and the staff of the Senate Committee on Internal Security have had ample time, since October 4, to go through the evidence and make copies of pertinent portions.

The Louisiana anti-Communist committee held a hearing on November 8th, in which certain evidence was made part of the public domain. Below is the first publication of this particular evidence.

Above is shown Martin Luther King, the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which has been in the forefront in racial and civil rights agitation, not only throughout the South but the nation. Below the photo is a reproduction of (See RED CONNECTIONS... Page 6

The notation found on the back of the original photograph which indicates that three identified Communists, Anne and Carl Braden and James E. Dombrowski, were among the principal speakers, along with Martin Luther King, at the Sixth Annual Conference of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at Birmingham, Alabama, September 25-28, 1964. Dombrowski's handwriting was on the left, King, Jr. responding to Anne Braden's speech. In background, AB (Anne Braden), Carl Braden, JAD (James A. Dombrowski). The figures 0070 are evidently the State's document number, indicating the extent of the evidence found in Dombrowski's files. Anne and Carl Braden are identified Communists. Carl Braden was convicted of sedition under Kentucky laws, and is the publisher of the official newspaper of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, "The Southern Patriot."

Not strangely since the records of the SCEF have been in the possession of the Louisiana authorities, racial agitation in the South has been reduced considerably. Responsible authorities informed THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN that the SCEF was probably one of the key centers for dissemination of literature connected with the various public demonstrations in which Martin Luther King has been a key figure.

FBI Dir. Hoover told Congress 4/22/64: "The Communist Party is attempting to use the Negro movement, as it does everything else, to promote its own interest rather than the welfare of those to whom it directs its agitation & propaganda; (and) to exploit the militant forces of the Negro civil-rights movement. The old Communist principle still holds: 'Communism must be built with non-Communist hands.' We do know that the Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement & it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures." Mr. Hoover wrote 10/24/60: "If a Minister can be influenced to keep silent about the dangers of Communism, the party has gained." (Christianity Today)

MARTIN LUTHER KING... AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee of a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

Dear Sir:

I am writing you in connection with Mr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

I am on vacation in the Bahamas. Our denomination has taken Mr. King's name for his efforts in the civil rights movement. On the other hand, I have read some derogatory things about Mr. King, such as those: Mr. King is a member of more than sixty white front organizations. The collection of which is in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is a collection of white front organizations.

Is Dr. King a racist? If not, how is he leaning toward communism? Is he a member of more than sixty communist front organizations? Is the Southern Christian Leadership Conference a communist front organization? What exactly is a communist front organization?

Thank you very much for your reply.

Sincerely,
